17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Lord, teach us to pray...”

Jesus just finished praying. One of his disciples requested that he teach them how to pray. Jesus responded by teaching them the “Our Father”. Not only did he teach them this prayer but he also taught them who they can pray to. Jesus revealed to them his Father and through him they could also claim Him as their Father who is an all good and caring Father. They learned that their prayer can lead them to further the coming of the kingdom, that His will be done, the gift of forgiveness, and deliverance from the final test.

The prayer Our Father may have become ordinary for us. Saying it every day or every minute when we are induced to say so loses the most important element of praying and that is, establishing a deep relationship with God that should change our lives. If we try to realize how we pray, we often-times lay down what we ask God to give us. We get frustrated at times when we know that our prayers are not answered. Let us take a moment to really know and understand the Our Father. Do we really know whom we are addressing our prayer to? Do we foster his kingdom to come? Do we follow his will? Do we value forgiveness as part of our daily living? Do we take a leap of faith to address the evil we do and change our lives? Are we really praying or just uttering words?

School Will Be Back in Session

This past week and the coming week, the school administration is already holding orientation sessions for parents and all those taking care of our children who are enrolled in our school. I hope this is not yet too late to ask but I encourage parents to have your children enrolled at OLGC. We hope to carry on the ideals of Catholic Education, providing our children the knowledge and values they need for personal growth and maturity. School will be back in session on August 3rd. Once again, I ask all parishioners to support our school, pray for our children and OLGC staff for another year of academic endeavor. I am looking forward to see the joy and laughter of our keikis around our campus.

Memorial Mass for Fr. Jack Niland

A Mass will be offered to thank God for the gift of life and ministry of Fr. Jack who served at OLGC. The Mass will be celebrated on August 5th at 6:00 P.M. and this is to remember his first year of death. I know that many of us had been touched by his presence and ministry with us. I invite you to join us in prayer for this occasion.

Aloha Parishioners of OLG,

While serving the faithful at the Oakland Diocese, I made the following my daily prayer:

“Lord, 1.) Help me to serve with faith, affection and dedication. 2.) Help me to keep my mouth shut. 3.) Keep me humble. 4.) If it is your wish, allow me to come back to Hawaii.”

After 4 1/2 years, my prayers was answered. At OLG the 4th request changed.

“4.) Keep me Lord, grateful for your blessings to be in this beautiful Aina.”

I pray that you found me faithful. It has been a blessing to serve you, the faithful of OLG, to minister with such a great staff and two awesome and holy priests.

Mahalo for the memories at OLG. May the Lord Bless and Protect you always.

*Yours in Christ,
Fr. Clarence*

CCD classes will begin on September 12, 2010

New Students: CCD registration forms and parish registration forms can be picked up at the office during regular business hours, Mon-Fri. from 8:00am to 4:00pm or you can register your children after all Sunday masses until July 31st.

There will be no registration after the Saturday evening Mass.

Registration will be closed by July 31st so we can complete our class listings.

If your child will be receiving First Communion or Confirmation, your family must be registered parishioners.

The Catholic High Schools will not be preparing the students to receive Confirmation, so the students must be enrolled in their home parish Confirmation program.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Would you like to inquire and explore the possibility of becoming a baptized Catholic? Would you like to complete the initiation rites, i.e. received First Communion and/or Confirmation? Would you just like to understand why we Catholics do what we do? If you answered “Yes” to any of the questions, Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, RCIA for short, classes are for you. Please contact Deacon Efrain through the parish office at 455-3012.
